

Earl Junior Statham

September 8, 1946 - March 4, 2005

Earl Junior Statham was born on September 8, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was born to Katie Statham Brown and the late Major Statham. On March 4, 2005, Earl departed his earthly body to be present with the Lord. Earl, known as "Squirrel" and "Shaky," attended the Baltimore City Public Schools. Earl was employed with the Baltimore City Public School System for eighteen years. Earl was fun loving and enjoyed playing the guitar. Earl always loved talking "junk" to the family, but most of all he was a loving and kind person. He was always giving and helping others. He leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Katie Statham Brown of Bishopville, S.C. (stepfather Johnnie Brown preceded him in death); two brothers, Jake Taylor of Bishopville, S.C., Robert Statham of Baltimore, Md. (a stepbrother, Arthur Brown preceded him in death); four sisters, Lottie Lewis, Ernestine Hunter, Carrie Wortham and Thomasina Statham all of Baltimore, Md. (a stepsister, Mary Brown preceded him in death); two brothers-in-law, Jack Wortham and Jewett Hunter; one sister-in-law, Gwendolyn Statham; two aunts, Thomasina Alexander of Patterson, N.J. and Geneva Overstreet of Bishopville, S.C.; a special niece, Karen Freeland; and a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

“ I am sorry to learn of your loss. Please accept my condolences. Please find comfort from reading the Bible at John 5:28,29, It help us to see, that one day there is going to be a resurrection. Just think, all those in God's memory will be brought back to life again. What a wonderful time that will be. May these word prove to be of comfort to you.##imported-begin##Julia Brown##imported-end##
