

Earl Augustine Robinson

October 1, 1942 - February 1, 2011

Earl Augustine Robinson was born October 1, 1942, in Richmond, VA to Imelda Sorina Robinson, deceased, and Charles F. Robinson, deceased. He was preceded in death by two brothers, Andrew and Victor Robinson.

Earl attended Armstrong High School. Earl worked for Philip Morris and the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. He retired from the latter but continued to work at the Wyndham Hotel and Hampton Inn. His services were greatly appreciated when he left.

Many of you know the love Earl had for music, Super Bowl parties and a zest for enjoying life to the fullest. Two very noteworthy parties he held were the "Blues and the James Brown" parties. In addition, his love for music extended to volunteering weekly at the Envoy Nursing Home, where he played taped music for the residents. He worked tirelessly in church and for civic causes. We especially remember his efforts in preserving the memory of the "Old Fulton".

He leaves to cherish a daughter, Angela Booker (Leonard, Sr.); three sons, Leonard Washington, Derrick Hopson (Verline) and Christopher Robinson; one sister, Rose Marie; three brothers, Melvin, Charles (Barbara), and Phillip (Elizabeth); five grandchildren, Joshua, Marcus, Leonard, Jr., Tatania Sade and Aalliyah; loving Aunt Helen Ayles; one devoted nephew, Vince; two devoted cousins, Carlton and Littell, Jr. and a host of nieces and nephews, family and friends. Earl will be truly missed by all!
