

Earl T. Simmon

August 15, 2002

Earl Tyrone Simmons was born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 15, 1954. He was the son of Evon Brooks and Robert Brooks. Earl departed this life on November 16, 2002 after a lengthy illness. Earl received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He served in the Armed Forces. Upon his discharge from the Army, he worked for the Maryland Department of Education until he became ill. Earl made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by those who knew him. Earl was very devoted to his mother whom he loved very much. He attended various churches in Baltimore. He liked to work with his hands. He was a handyman and loved to repair anything. He also loved fishing and music. He leaves to mourn; his daughter, Keonna Simmons; brother, John Wheeler; sister, Angela Chapman; two stepsisters and two stepbrothers, one brother-in-law, four aunts, three uncles, and a host of cousins, nieces and nephews. A HOMEGOING MESSAGE FROM MOTHER "Earl" your gallant soul has "Taken Flight" Into the land where there is no night. But, Earl, your memories are carved in our hearts to stay, So, you are not dead, you've only "Gone On" Into a "Brighter more wonderful Dawn" So while you sleep and your voice is still, Your spirit goes on and it always will, Love, Your Mother
