

Earlene DeYoung

September 19, 1943 - November 27, 2022

Earlene DeYoung born to the late Earl and Beatrice Rowlett on September 19, 1943 in Baltimore, MD. On Sunday November 27, 2022 Earlene quietly transitioned to be with the Lord after suffering with a long illness.

Earlene completed her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore City. She worked at St. Mary's as an after-school program coordinator and was promoted to a Pre-K school teacher retiring in 2005. Earlene enjoyed working with children and helping them advance their education at an early age.

At an early age, Earlene accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior and was extremely faithful until she was called home. She joined St. Mary's Catholic Church under the guidance of Monsignor Tewes.

She met her husband Raymond DeYoung and married in 1973. They remained married until her departure.

Earlene was a gentle hearted, kind, sweet and loving woman. Her soap operas (stories) were one of the highlights of her day along with completing crossword puzzles. Earlene had extreme compassion for her family and always looked forward to family gatherings while blasting her music. She was known for being fiercely dedicated to her children and would have sacrificed anything for them.

Earlene was preceded in death by her son Andre Ross, grandson Andre Rowlett and three brothers Roque, Algie and Wayne Rowlett.

Earlene leaves to cherish her love and memory: her children, James Rowlett, Maytwone Brown, Elaine Wise (son-in-law Jeff Wise) and Shawn DeYoung; grandchildren, James Rowlett Jr., Ashley Rowlett, Jamar Rowlett, Jordan Rowlett, and Jasmine Rowlett, Elder Elect William Brown, Brianna Wise and Aniya Logan; her sisters, Jacqueline Rowlett, LaNae Snowden (brother-in-law Gregory Snowden), Marletia Rowlett-Smith and William Rowlett; and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends

“ I love you so much Aunt Earlene. I miss you so much. I appreciate who you were more and more each day. You did your best. You walked your walk. I know it was not easy. I know you grew up in a time when you thought you needed someone to make your dreams come true.

I only wish you had grown up in a different time, span and place. I wish Cosmopolitan Magazines would have told you what it told us... That "you could have it all."

Because of all the women I know, you would have been such a Classy-Lady-Boss. I would have had you proof read all my angry emails.

I miss you.
