

Earline Miriam Brown

February 6, 1940 - September 21, 2021

Earline Miriam Brown was born on February 6, 1940 to the late Mary Bowser and Earl Brown. She was the only child and loved very much by her parents. Earline peacefully departed this life on September 21, 2021 to be with the Lord.

Educated by the Baltimore City Public School Systems, Earline continued her education by earning an associate's degree in business administration. She would use this education and great work ethic to secure employment with the State of Maryland as a personnel assistant. Through her long standing employment with the state, she was able to make life-long friends, work, and retire after thirty-five years.

Earline was a kind and loving woman who enjoyed listening to music and cooking. She shared a great part of herself by adopting her son Joshua Earl Brown and raising him since he was 6-months old. He will always remember how funny, giving, and stern she was and their many conversations. She loved to talk!

She leaves to cherish her memories: her son Joshua Earl Brown; God-daughter Jackie; uncle Edward; cousin Delores; caregiver Annette; and a host of family, friends, and neighbors who will all cherish fond memories.
