

Easter Beulah Cooper

April 5, 1920 - July 20, 2018

Easter Beulah Cooper, the second of twelve children, was born April 5, 1920 in Wake Forest, North Carolina, to the late William and Cora Wall Forte. She died at home after a brief illness on July 20, 2018.

Easter attended public school in North Carolina as well as helped her family on the farm. She followed her Sister, Ella to Baltimore in search of employment and met Theodore Cooper, whom she later married. After losing an infant son, her daughter, Esther, was born. Their marriage lasted forty-six years until her husband preceded her in death on August 24, 1992.

Easter was known for dancing the "Charleston" and for her homemade biscuits. She also enjoyed fishing with her Sister, Margie, at her pond in North Carolina.

Easter dedicated her life to Jehovah by baptism on January 1, 1960. Although her vision and hearing diminished in her later years. Easter continued to maintain her love for Jehovah. She enjoyed listening to Bible videos and speaking to others about Bible truths. She especially loved her family, and repeatedly called out for them during her last days.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was preceded in death by her sisters, Minnie Battle, Ella Sanders, Nollie Epps, Dorothy Fernandes and her brothers, Priestly, Lindsay and William. Easter leaves to cherish her memory her daughter, Esther Tisdale, Son-in-law, Robert Tisdale, her siblings Pearl Johnson, Margie Brown, (Eddie) Nellie Emory and Early Forte, (Minnie) and many nieces and nephews. She also leaves her grandchildren, Brianna Merrick (Damien) and Emily Robinson (Ronald); her great grandchildren, Kirby, Bria, Brandon, Brandy, Tyeshawn, Darren, Dorrien, Diamond, Jordan, Destiny, and Braylen and a host of other relatives, friends, and neighbors who loved her and will miss her.
