

Ed Gilliam

October 23, 1936 - September 7, 2019

ED departed this life on Saturday September 7, 2019 at the FutureCare Sandtown nursing home due to a lengthy illness.

The son of the late Ed and Mary Gilliam, he was born on October 23, 1936 in Prince Edward County, Virginia.

Ed attended the Prince Edward County Public Schools.

Later his parents moved him to Baltimore, Maryland where he continued his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools.

In 1984 Ed was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Regina Lomax Gilliam.

Ed worked and retired as a roofer.

He was preceded in death by: three brothers Walter, Earl, and Frank Gilliam, one sister Julia Gilliam, sisters-in-law Josephine Gilliam and Carolyn Lomax, and two brothers-inlaw Vernon and Michael Lomax.

Ed was smooth but serious especially when it came to playing Pinochle. He didn't just come to play. He came to win and in most cases "HE WON" competitive by nature.

Ed was a jack-of-all-trades. If there was a job to be done, Ed was your man. He was very reliable and dependable man.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Sonya Hagler; son-in-law, Jimmy; loving and devoted niece, Lisa; nephew and best friend, Derik. Ed was loved by all. Also, Peaches, Poochie and Tony will share great and loving memories. He also leaves five brothers-in-law, William, Richard, Walter, George, and David; five sisters-in-law, Aline, Audrey, Sonya, Delores, and Vivian; a host of other grandchildren, greatgrandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
