

Eddie Louis Brown, Sr.

April 14, 1952 - March 16, 2022

Eddie was born on April 14, 1952, in Seaboard, North Carolina. He entered eternal rest on March 16, 2022, at his home in Mechanicsville, Virginia surrounded by loved ones. He was preceded in life by his loving wife, Christine Brown; father, Wilbert Brown; mother, Lucille Brown-Johnson; brothers, George Brown and James Henry; and sisters, Mary Delotch, Armenta Ash, and Louise Lofton.

He was employed by Nabisco Company and retired after 30+ years of service as a Machine Operator. Eddie would leave work every day smelling like Oreo cookies. In his younger years, he was a singer/songwriter and was a member of Willie Jones and the Gospel Sensations. He had a love for race cars and spent many days at the Richmond Raceway or the racetrack in New Kent County. He didn't mind showing off his Classic Camaro either. Eddie was an avid Dallas Cowboys fan, no matter how bad they would lose at the end of the season, he kept his faith in his team.

Later in life, he loved to travel with his departed wife Christine. They enjoyed a good restaurant and were inseparable. He would never turn down Snow Crab Legs or a good piece of pork. Bring him a piece of Souse Meat and his day was made. He also spent a lot of time with his family and close friends. His love and devotion to his brothers and sisters were amazing to watch and they were never too far away from each other.

He leaves to cherish his memory his daughters, Cynthia Brown, Andrena Brown, Jewell Brown and Alexis Brown; son, Eddie Brown Jr. and stepson, Duane Taylor; brothers, Wilbert Brown (Joyce Brown), Willie Brown (Clara Brown), Thurmon Brown (Theresa Brown), Ervin Brown (Linda Brown) and John Brown; brothers-in-law, Glen Taylor, and Gilbert Taylor; sisters, Lula Smith, Martha Boone and Lucille Booker; sisters-in-law, Vicky Rose and Mary Walker; 14 grandchildren, 9 great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.

Eddie was easy-going, independent, and respectable. Those baby blue eyes would immediately capture your attention. He was a father, grandfather, brother, uncle, and friend. We will miss him dearly and hold his memory forever in our hearts.

“ We, the Class of 1971(Tine's high school class of Courtland, Va), are so sorry about the passing of Eddie. We always enjoyed Eddie's & Tine's fellowshiping with us when we had our class reunions. Our class adopted Eddie right away when we met him. Our hearts are heavy and we know yours are, too. We know that God is still in control. HE gives us life and HE knows when HE wants us back. Lean on your faith and on each other. Eddie has left a real legacy behind. As you are missing him, think of the close bond you had, the great times you had together, the love you shared, the storms of life that you faced together, and the list goes and on. We miss Tine and we are going to miss Eddie, too. Our love for them will never die.

“ Dear family: As I type this condolence, tears are streaming down my face. Hearing that Eddie had left us hurt me so badly. I considered Eddie "my brother" because he married my very best friend Tine (she and I were best friends since the 8th grade - in fact, we always referred to each other as "sisters"). I was so happy when they met, fell in love, and got married. Eddie was a wonderful, caring, kind, considerate man who had a heart of gold. He and Tine made a great team. They spent alot of time with us (birthdays, cookouts, holidays, as well as hard, troubled times). I loved them so very much and I always will. I thank God for making us "family". I value ALL of the great memories of them that I carry in my heart - they will remain there forever. I know Eddie is happy now that he's rejoicing with God, the angels, Tine, my mother (who loved them dearly and they loved her), and all the others that went to be with God before him. Rest in peace Eddie. God has another angel singing in the Heavenly choir. Family - I will be thinking of you all in days and months to come.
