

Eddie Lee Hinton, Sr.

June 4, 1928 - September 24, 2010

I have fought a good fight,
I have finished my course.
So he put his arms around me,
and whispered, “come and follow me”

Our hearts are deeply saddened by the unfortunate home calling of our beloved Eddie Lee Hinton, Sr., 82, of Wise, North Carolina. He was born June 4, 1928, the fifth child of nine siblings to the late Buck and Nancy Hinton. Our souls can rejoice in his grace because our beloved is resting in His hands. He joined our heavenly father the morning of September 24, 2010. Because he was a humble and faithful servant of God, his inner strength has served as an inspiration to all who knew him. He was preceded in death by his son, William Thomas Smith; and his parents, Buck and Nancy Hinton, and all his siblings .

He attended Warren County Training School in Wise, North Carolina. At an early age and moved from North Carolina to Richmond, working at Virginia Folding Box Company now known as Westvaco, until he retired. In his later years, he joined Cedar Street Baptist Church of God and served on the Usher Board, until his health began to fail.

Eddie enjoyed fishing, hunting, and smoking his cigars. He was an exceptional dresser and had a great sense of humor.

Our beloved leaves to cherish his loving memory, one daughter, Yvette Hinton Rustin (Lorenzo); three sons, Eddie L. Jr. (Milbra), Gene L. and Reginald Hinton (Deryl); 12 grandchildren; a host of great-grandchildren; a loving god-daughter; a host of sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends; devoted friend, Elloweese Hinton and Ted Fuller.

Home Bound

Earth was a place of worship,
but Heaven is now my home.
pray . . . and weep, no more.

“ To the family of Eddie Lee Hinton Sr,

I am deeply sorry for your loss. From the picture below with the family gathered around Mr. Hinton, I see he was a very cherished and loved person. In God's Word, The Bible, It speaks about a time when the pain and suffering we experience now will be a thing of the past. In Rev 21:4, it says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Please take comfort in these words from the Bible.

“ I will truly miss my Uncle Ed he was like a granddaddy to me. Especially since I never got to meet my grandfather. There are so many memories I could share....I really enjoyed listening to his stories about him and my grandfather (Lovelace Hinton) when they were little. If I ever met a Hinton and thought they could be family members I would always go to Uncle Ed and ask him questions to find out the connections. He was like the family Historian. I will miss laughing and singing with my uncle. I am at peace with you leaving this earthly place because you have no more worries, suffering or pains. I know he is with God now because he was a wonderful and caring person. I know he is in heaven with his "new legs" talking his talk and walking his walk dressed sharp with his cuff links,nice suit, and his fresh pair of angel wings. Love you Uncle Ed!
