

Eddie Jeffery McCall

July 4, 1925 - October 26, 2001

Some people spend their entire lives bringing joy to all who come into their midst, yet never ask for special credit or reward. Such was the life of Eddie Jeffrey McCall. A TIME TO BE BORN Eddie Jeffrey McCall, son of the late Reverend John and Mary McCall was born in Bishopville, South Carolina on July 4, 1925. He departed this life suddenly on October 26, 2001. A TIME TO GROW Jeff, as he was affectionately called, was educated through the Lee County Public School System, graduating from the Dennis H. School. He received many certificates and had a variety of skills. A TIME TO WORSHIP Jeff was brought up in the Little Zion Baptist Church. He was baptized at an early age under the leadership of Reverend John McCall. A TIME TO BUILD AND SERVE Jeff served a tour of duty in the United States Navy, after his honorable discharge, he worked for The Bethlehem Steel company. He switched jobs and retired as a Merchant Marine of thirty plus year. Jeff was an excellent provider and a proud devoted father who loved his son dearly. He was known to boast of Larry's numerous accomplishments and successes. While he was a hardworking man with numerous interests, he always made time for his family. Jeff was a quiet, giving, patient man willing to help whomever, whenever, or however he could. His caring manner and giving spirit reached far beyond his immediate family and was often felt by extended family and friends. He touched people from all walks of life. Generous and unselfish, Jeff will be sorely missed. A TIME TO MOURN He leaves to cherish his memory: one son, Larry McCall of Baltimore, Maryland; one brother, Joe

McCall of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; one sister, Mary A. Dowell of Bishopville, SC; one sister-in-law, Martha McCall; a special friend, Romaine Neal; and a host of nephew, nieces and other relatives and friends
