

Eddie Ray Marshall

May 30, 1945 - July 22, 2016

Eddie Ray Marshall was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 30, 1945 to the late Louise and Raymond Marshall. Eddie departed this life peacefully on Friday, July 22, 2016.

Eddie grew up in South Baltimore and attended Baltimore City Schools. He had a passion for art; he became a Freelance Artist selling paintings, cartoon sketches and portraits. He was very crafty and creative and could fix anything that was broken. He enjoyed socializing with people and bike riding. He sold most of his art work at the Inner Harbor and became very popular, making it his favorite place to hang out in Baltimore City.

During his younger years he was given the nickname "Caveman" because he was known for street boxing. As a brother he was a protector. He cared greatly for his family and always was concerned. Eddie will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

Eddie was preceded in death by: his sisters, Dorothy Short and Hattie Marshall.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his brother, Charles Baglin; his son, Charles Marshall; his daughters, Shelly Marshall and Sheila Marshall; four grandchildren, Shamarr Johnson, Ahmar

Taylor, Simeon Bryant and Aaron Nelson; the love of his life Marie Minor; his nieces, nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
