

Eddie Montgomery

December 3, 1922 - March 31, 2005

Eddie Montgomery, son of the late Betty and Harvey, was born on December 3, 1922, in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, the only son of three children. A Time To Live: After the separation of his parents at an early age, Eddie and his mother relocated in Bessemer, Alabama, where he was graduated from Dunbar High School. Eddie accepted Christ at an early age while attending Liberty Baptist Church. He was an active member of the Usher Board and always used his God-given melodious voice in singing God's praises, whenever he was approached to participate in Christian events. In 1945, Eddie decided, while on vacation, to visit a friend in Newark, New Jersey, never realizing that this vacation would be the turning point in his life. He was "hooked... line and sinker." He found immediate employment with E.I. Dupont, where he rose in the ranks to the position of Chemist. Eddie retired after thirty-four years of dedicated service in 1982. He became a member of St. James A.M.E. Church under Reverend Ulysses Blake. Eddie was an avid sports fan, never missing a Brooklyn Dodgers' home game at Ebbets Field. Eddie always stated his luckiest and most memorable day in his life was the day Rev. Blake joined him and Beulah Phair in holy matrimony. This union has lasted for forty-seven years. A Time to Die: Eddie departed this life to join his parents and two sisters on Thursday, March 31, 2005, in the comfort of his home... after a lengthy illness. All who loved, knew and met him will feel the pain of this loss. A Time to Mourn: Eddie leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and caring wife, Beulah; his godson, Dr. James Locke; his sister-in-law and brother-in-law, Margaret and Judson Hair; his sisters-in-law, Sallie Pratt, Blanche Robinson and Katie Phair; and many nieces, nephews, and countless friends.

“ I am sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. May Revelations 21:3,4 prove to be a comfort for you. It describes a time when there will be no more sickness, death, or pain.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ It is very unfortunate that at some time we all have to experience the sorrow associated with the death of a loved one. May you find comfort now and in the days to come from, "...the Father of tender mercies...the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
