“ *My Dear Poppy,
When we first met at Maryland live I thought what this old man want with me. I prayed about it and I discovered age ain't nothing but a number. We discovered how to love to a different level. You showed me how to love and be loved. You was my rock. We have so many great memories. I am so very happy God chose our paths to cross. Just wish he was not ready for you just yet. There are so many angels waiting for you with open arms. I guess it is selfish of me to wanted you to stay with me forever. I was not ready for our story to end. I miss you very much. I will love you always and forever.*
