

Eddie Taylor

October 1, 1924 - August 10, 2006

On August 10, 2006 after a lengthy illness, God in his infinite wisdom saw the road getting rough for his son, Eddie Taylor, and quietly called him home. Eddie Taylor was born in McDonald, North Carolina to the late Bailey and Dealey Taylor, on October 1, 1924. He received his education in McDonald, North Carolina where he joined the U.S. Armed Forces and received World War II Victory Medal. He held numerous jobs in his lifetime, but his most important one was at “Koppers” where he retired after thirty years of hard work. After retirement, Eddie just couldn’t stop, due to his big heart, unselfishness, and compassion for others. He joined a hacking club in 1986 in Walbrook Junction Shopping Center and enjoyed it diligently, until his health would not allow him any longer. Although he wasn’t a member of a church, he was most definitely a strong believer of God. Affectionately known as “Mr. Ed”, he was loved and respected by an abundance of associates, family, and friends. He was always willing, to the utmost of his abilities, to help anyone, at any time. He leaves to cherish his memory: loving wife of twenty-one years, Dozene Taylor; two sons, Eric Sanders and Dallas Taylor (three sons preceded him in death, Eddie Jr, Henderson Taylor and Ronald Moody); three daughters, Josie Hoover of N.C., Doris Fleet and Alice Taylor; four grandchildren who resided with him, Tyrone, Jason, Shaquan and Sharon; eighteen additional grandchildren, Kay, Donna, Terry, Sam, Gerrod, Raynard, Kimberly, Latasha, Tony, Crystal, Chantay, Alyssa, Dallas, Tiffany, Thomas, Brandon, Shanika and Deron; thirty-seven great-grandchildren, two great-great-grandchildren; two nephews, Clarence Jones of N.C. and Charles Taylor of Washington, D.C.; stepdaughter, Sharon Smith; son-in-law, Bernard Fleet; daughter-in-law, Darlene Taylor; three sisters-in-law, Wilma Joyce, Dorothy Strickland, and Florence Parker; brother-in-law, Edward Joyce; special cousin and friend, Ben Chavis; his cat, Precious Taylor; a host of other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by sister, Pearlie Mae Jones and two brothers, Bradley and Grady Taylor.

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Taylor family, I would like to express my sympathy as you mourn the loss of your love one. Take comfort from the Scriptures particularly John 5:28,29 and 2 Cor. 1:3,4. Yes the Bible gives hope that you can see your dear love again through the power of the resurrection and that Jehovah God the God of comfort will help you during your time of grief. My prayers are with you and your family.##imported-begin##D. A. Chase##imported-end##
