

Eddie W. Pugh

April 26, 1951 - February 28, 2006

EDDIE WEBSTER PUGH, son of Ethel L. McCloud and the late Joseph Pugh was born on April 26, 1951 in Baltimore, Maryland. After a brief illness on February 28, 2006, Eddie departed this life peacefully in the presence of his wife. Eddie as he was affectionately called by his family and friends was one of a family of eight children. He was educated in the Baltimore City public school system. At an early age he attended New Metropolitan Baptist Church, where he was baptized and accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. In 1991 he re-dedicated his life to Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Eddie held positions with The Maryland Cup Company and Atco Rubber Products. For approximately 10 years he was employed by the Baltimore City convention Center, as a Crew Leader for Client Services in the Operations Department, where he developed many wonderful relationships and friendships with the staff and co-workers. Eddie was the father of two children, his daughter: Davonne Pugh-Jackson and his son: Daronne Pugh. He was preceded in death by his brother: Irvin Pugh, father: Joseph Pugh and daughter: Davonne Jackson. In 1997, Eddie met and developed a warm and loving relationship with Cheryl (Bunny). The two began an inseparable union of many happy memories, which entered into Holy Matrimony on July 23, 2005, when they happily became Husband and Wife. Eddie entertained himself by watching old western movies, singing oldies, going out dancing, and spending time with his family and friends. He enjoyed the closeness and warmth of sharing his life and experiences with his loving wife, fishing with his older brother "Odell", shopping and hanging out with his son (Daronne) and the many family gatherings especially during the holidays. Eddie was a devoted husband, a family man and a good friend. His quiet spirit, warm smile and gentle way will be missed by all who knew him. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Cheryl Pugh; son, Daronne Edward Pugh; stepchildren, Deong Smith and Cheryl Bell; mother, Ethel McCloud; sisters, Josephine Pugh-Johnson of North Carolina and Jacqueline Pugh-Burke; brothers, Odell of North Carolina, Johnnie, Miekeal of Pennsylvania, and Wardell; sister-in-laws, Rochelle Pugh, Daphne Pugh, Sharon Harris and Dana Oliver; brother-in-laws, Johnnie Johnson and Delmar Taylor; uncles, Jesse Ray and Theodore Pugh, both of New York; aunts, Lillie Ruth Anderson and Gloria Pugh and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Pugh. As you hold onto the memories of Mr. Pugh, also hold onto the comfort from Almighty God who promises that soon "... many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Daniel 12:2. Yes, Almighty God's promise of a resurrection will allow us to be with our love ones again. May this be a source of comfort to you all.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to your family on the death of your loved one. Sadly, death touches all of our lives. We can hardly bear it when we lose someone we love. Jehovah cares so much for us, and he has purposed to end all sickness and death shortly. 1st Cor.15:26 tells us, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." May you be comforted by his promise of a resurrection at John 5: 28,29.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##
