“ It was the shocking news that brought tears to my eyes. And you made me remember what it was like to cry. On that dreadful day, God decided it was your time, your time to go, so He took your life away, and everyone felt the pain.

I hope you were watching the day the family gathered around your bed to see you lying there with the look of peace on your face; knowing that we were all there to show you that we cared a lot about you no matter how much you think we didn't.

It's hard sometimes to imagine the lost of a love one. So the family will always think of you, and we will always know that you'll be looking down on us, keeping your family safe, and making sure everything goes okay in their lives, making sure that they will live a good life just like you did until the day that God decided that it was your time to go.

We cried as the rain fell that day; with the tremendous rain drops, memories whispered with tears of our love ones lost.

We will still sit here and think about you with your sons, their family, and your lovely wife. We really wished you could be here, so we will take a minute of silence in memory of you....
