

Edgar Bernard Pindell

November 26, 1914 - December 14, 2008

EDGAR BERNARD PINDELL was born on November 26, 1914. He was the seventh child of fifteen children born to the late Phillip Daniel and Mary Beatrice Pindell. Edgar received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was married to the late Beatrice Banks Pindell for over sixty-five years. Edgar and his wife were the foster parents of over one hundred infants waiting to be adopted. That was a labor of love for both of them. Edgar was baptized at the Faith Baptist Church and later joined the Zion Baptist Church where he was a member of Men's Layman Class and attended Prayer Meetings until he was unable to attend. Edgar's employment included C.C. Camp, the box factory and Sealtest Dairy, from which he retired. He leaves to cherish his memory: his daughter, Barbara Taylor; brother, Louis Pindell; two sisters, Mary Conaway and Irma Faulcon; grandson, Aaron Taylor; two great-grandsons, Montiel and Cory Taylor; and many nieces and nephews.

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Job 14:14,15 lovingly tells us: "If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? All the days...I shall wait, until my relief comes, You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning". May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about how Almighty God will restore the life of many dead loved ones.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
