June 22, 1931 - August 6, 2009

Edith C. Wiggs, affectionately known as Denise, the daughter of the late Charles and Amanda Green was born on June 22, 1931 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on August 6, 2009 after battling a lengthy illness. Denise received her education at the St. Ann's Catholic High School in Baltimore, Maryland. As a young child, she suffered from Rheumatic fever, which kept her bed ridden for several years. Denise was a free spirited person who loved ballet and music but her passion was art. She began sketching and drawing at the age of ten. Some thought her artwork was so skillful, that she was encouraged to display some of her pieces at the Baltimore Museum of Art. After high school, she volunteered as a Candy Striper at Franklin Square Hospital. On December 18, 1948, Denise married Charles I. Peaker and out of this union had one son, Charles Jr. Several years later, she divorced and then met and married Gordon Wiggs on May 7, 1959. Out of this union, she gained a stepson, Sherman and had three children, Gordon, Michael and Denise. She loved caring for and spending time with her nieces, nephews, and grandchildren. She also enjoyed taking care of her beloved cat, Puffins for over twenty years. “ *To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort you in all your tribulations."
