

Edith V. Dandridge

April 26, 1937 - April 1, 2025

Edith Virginia Lewis Dandridge was born on April 26, 1937, in Germantown, on the Eastern Shore of Maryland to her late parents Pauline Gladys Lewis and James Edward Lewis. She was preceded in death by her parents and her two sisters Edna Lewis and Shirley Pearson.

Edith peacefully departed this life on Tuesday, April 1, 2025, at 7:30 A.M. at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland.

Edith spent her early years in Germantown, where she attended Moton High School in Easton, Maryland. In her later years, she moved to New York where she pursued her education at the Business Machine Institute. Once she finished school, she made her home in Baltimore, Maryland, where she met and married James Dandridge. From their union two sons were born David and Darryl.

She built a successful 26-year career at C&P Telephone Company (now Verizon) while also working part-time in real estate and insurance. Edith was a devoted member of the Central Church of Christ in Edmondson Village. She found great joy in cooking and attending church, passions she held close until her health began to decline.

Edith was deeply loved and will be profoundly missed by her family, especially her son, Darryl and grandson DJ. She now joins her beloved eldest son, David Sr., in eternal rest.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her son Darryl. Grandchildren: David W. Dandridge Jr., Natalia Christian, Devin Dandridge, and Tia Dandridge. Three nieces: Angela Nichols, Cheryl Brooks, and Lita Jameson. One nephew: Steven Brooks. One honorary niece: Danielle Smith.

Her legacy of love, strength, and faith will remain in the hearts of all who knew her.
