“ To the family, Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort in the promise made at Rev 21:4 which says, "...And he (God)will wipe every tear from their eyes and death will be no more..." Look to God as your source of comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Isaiah 25:8,9 where God says that he will swallow up death forever and he will wipe the tears from all faces. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My condolences to the Fulton's. Here is a promise from the Holy Bible that gives comfort. 1 Corinthians 15:26 which says: "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." I certainly hope that this scripture give you much comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##S. McNeil##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
