

Deaconess Edith Williams Gregory

October 5, 1928 - December 31, 2018

"In my Father's house, there are many dwelling places...I go to prepare a place for you and if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself."

Edith Logan was born October 5, 1928 to the late Janet Logan and Burley Hicks in Richmond, Virginia. She was reared by a loving aunt and uncle, Dorothy L. (Dora) and Lawrence Wood, both deceased. On December 31, 2018, Edith moved from earth to the heavenly place prepared for her.

Edith joined Trinity Baptist Church at an early age and was baptized by the late Rev. K. D. Turner. She was a past president of the Deaconess Ministry and was a faithful member. Her service was recognized by the ministry and in 2017, she became Deaconess Emeritus. She sang in the choir for years and was a member of Trinity Junior Female Singers,

With strong belief in a life of service, Edith served in the following ministries: Sarah C. Turner Memorial missionary Society, Soup Kitchen, Hospitality, and the Senior Fellowship. She worked diligently and faithfully until her health began to fail. Her service was recognized and she was the 2016 Trinity Baptist Church Woman of the Year.

Edith was educated in Richmond Public Schools, attending Maggie L. Walker

High School. Many years later, she was employed by Richmond Public Schools as an advocate for elementary school children in the Grandparents Program.

At an early age, Edith married George Edward Williams (deceased). From this union, two children were born. Deaconess Edith Gregory was preceded in death by her second husband, Deacon William Gregory, and her daughter, Gwendolyn A. Hendricks. She leaves to cherish her memory, daughter, Gloria Williams (Otis); two devoted granddaughters, Rochelle Sargent and LaFond Lyles (Calvin); two great grandchildren, Ke'Mon and Maya Lyles; sister-in-law, Bessie Gillyard; three brother-in-laws, Haywood, David and Paul Gregory; others left with fond and loving memories are two sister-cousins. Deaconess Florence H. Tyler and Reverend Dorothy H. Bruce; two brother-cousins, GySgt Richard E. Hicks and Minister Leonard D. Hicks; her faithful dog, Lenny; and a host of other relatives and friends.
