“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ Your grandkids Lindsay & CC loved you so very very much. Edith you helped me through a daycare crisis so many years ago. Edith you showed my daughters so much love ; they really trusted you and didn't want anyone else to babysit them. My mom had died a couple of years before I would meet Edith and what a true blessing she was. This type of kindness is worth more than money to me. We will miss you Edith.

“ My dear friend Edith I am going to miss you so much. I met Edith when I was 16 years old and she was 10 years older than me. Edith has always treated me like a sister she never guided me wrong. It's one thing I tell people to this day something that Edith told me 30 years ago. She said Gail in 10 years from now don't be standing in the same spot ,I was standing in the same but because of what she said made me stronger and it made me become who I am. To the family of Edith please except my condolences we will always be family we have been knowing each other for over 40 years. My heart goes out to each and everyone of you all and to Avery Moore I love you . Gail Jordan
