

Edith Jessup

December 2, 1916 - July 15, 2013

“Rather than mourn the absence of the flame, let us celebrate how brightly it burned.” EDITH MACKALL JESSUP was born on December 2, 1916 to the late George Mackall and the late Anna Mackall. She slipped into the presence of the Lord on July 15, 2013. She was the eldest of eleven children.

Edith was raised in Prince Frederick, Maryland and received her education in the Calvert County School System.

She was married to the late Luther Jessup and from this union one son, “Money,” was born who was the joy and delight of her life. She was a very kind and compassionate person. She had a very outspoken and direct personality. Edith was devoted to her family. She was especially supportive and available in times of difficulty. Edith was the matriarch of her family and what a precious gem it was to have known her. She will be greatly missed by all who knew her and had the pleasure of sharing her life. She would make everyone around her feel good by just being in her company.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her beloved son, Luther Jessup, Sr. “Money”; daughter, Cynthia Mackall “Susie”; four sisters, Delores Coates, Celestine Sewell, Josephine Harris and Susie; one brother, Joseph; three daughters-in-law, Barbara Jessup, Kenya Green and Gertrude Johnson; ten grandchildren, twenty great-grandchildren, fifteen great-great-grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

Edith was preceded in death by: husband, Luther Jessup; three sisters, Ella Jordan, Sadie Heigh and Elsie Brooks; and three brothers, George Mackall Jr., Gilbert Mackall and Charles Mackall.

“ God is the God of all comfort "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, the father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort" 2Corinthians 1:3
So sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. When we draw close to God he will draw close to us; one way to do this is through prayer - the value of prayer should never be underestimated.
My deepest condolences to the family... I am so sorry you lost your loved one in death.

“ To the family of Edith Jessup. Death is such a difficult concept for mankind. God never planned for death to be part of his purpose for mankind. Please accept my deepest condolences; I am so very sorry that you have to go through this. Remember, the good times you have had with your loved one and this will help you to get through this terrible time.

Sincerely,
