

Edith Marie Jackson

April 5, 1950 - April 18, 2008

Gently and peacefully our family circle was broken. On Friday, April 18, 2008, our beloved mother, daughter, sister, aunt, companion and close friend departed this life at St. Mary's Hospital. Edith Marie Jackson was born April 5, 1950 in Bumpass, Virginia to Catherine West Jackson and the late Charles Jackson, Sr. At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior. She was a member of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church in Montpelier, Virginia. Edith graduated from Louisa County High School (formerly A.G. Richardson High School) in 1968. After twenty-five years of service, she retired from Union Envelope Company. She also was a professional housekeeper for the families of Walter & Susan Robertson and Lee & Janie Pinney in the Richmond area. Edith was a woman of great humor and showed much love to her family. She enjoyed entertainment, telling jokes, music and loved to dance. Those left to reminisce and cherish fond memories: one beloved daughter, Angela Jackson; a beloved companion, Phillip Mayo; loving mother, Catherine Jackson; one devoted brother, Charles Jackson, Jr. (Margaret); five loving sisters, Carrie Johnson, Mary Bowles, Evangelist Jessie Hooker, Rev. Sharon Roberts (Melvin), and Carolyn Powell; a host of caring in-laws, Janice Wilson, Linda, Arnest, Edward, Kenneth, Willie (Rose) and Garland (Cynthia) Mayo; a host of other relatives and friends; two devoted friends, Phyllis Harris and Delores Squire who loved and will truly miss her.

“ I would like to express fellow feeling to you all in your recent circle of life being broken. We all long for better times to live in, our creator know how you all are fairing these days and cares about the family as 1 Peter 5:7 says. It is going to be a great day when God's Will is done on earth as it is in the heaven,Mt.6:6-10, Peace , happiness, no death and pain and sorrow. I am looking forward to that and I know you all are too. I hope these thoughts will be uplifting to read and may all the memories and happy times shared with Ms. Edith keep supporting you all on the journey of life ahead.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I offer my heartfelt sympathy to the family of Edith. I know your hearts are troubled and grieving, and I am so sorry that you lost your loved one. God knows exactly how you feel, and when we hurt his heart hurts for us. He is the God of love who is always there for us during tribulation. 2nd Cor 1:3,4 1st John 4,8. One day all sorrow and pain will be a thing of the past, because Jehovah gives us this wonderful promise. At Rev 21:4 it says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." verse 5 says, "Look! "I am making all things new. "Also he says, "Write! because these words are faithful and true." So we have God's assurance that everything he promises will come true if we have true faith, and trust in him with all of our hearts. Please find much comfort in his wonderful promises.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of Edith. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
