

Edith Medley

May 2, 1936 - January 9, 2012

Edith Medley was born on May 2, 1936 to the late Theodore and Elanora Logan. Edith was born and raised in East Baltimore, Maryland.

Edith graduated from Dunbar Sr. High in the class of 1954. She was later married to the late Franklin Lee Medley. From this union two sons the late Wayne Franklin Medley and Rodney Lee Medley Sr. were born.

For twenty years Edith was nurse. After she retired from nursing she became a small business owner. The first establishment was 1201 Guilford Avenue, A grocery store. Through this business she employed a lot of neighborhood people. Edith was also a part of "Gilray Construction Company".

In 1997, Edith retired from business and went back into nursing to care for the elderly and the sick and shut-in. This ended in 2005 when she was diagnosed with her first form of cancer (She was forced to retire at this time). Edith was with us for seven years after this cancer hit.

Edith enjoyed fishing and eating crabs she also loved her dogs. Her memory is survived by her son, Rodney Lee Medley, Sr. and the late Wayne Franklin Medley. Her only brother William Clarence Logan, Sr her grandchildren, Rodney Medley Jr., Raven Medley, Michelle Garris and Duane "Poppy" Medley.. Her great-grandchildren, Zakiyyah "Amber" Burns, Roman Medley, Marcus Smith, Lamont Garris, Zaria Medley and Christopher Medley. A dedicated neighbor Wanda, and a host of relatives and friends.

“In life as well as death, Edith wanted to be a learning experience for others to better themselves”.
