“ I send my heartfelt condolences to the family and friends of Edith at this most sorrowful time. May you be comforted by the wonderful hope of the resurrection. Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life. Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. John 11:25. Jesus wept when his friend Lazarus died, but he had the power bestowed upon him by his father, to resurrect Lazarus back to life, and this is exactly what he did. You can read about this wonderful resurrection in the eleventh chapter of the book of John. Also at Mark 5:38-46 it tells us how Jesus resurrected a little 12-year old girl back to life. The account says that her parents were beside themselves with great ecstasy at seeing their child alive again. One day we too have this sure promise of seeing our loved ones come back to life again under peaceful and happy conditions. May you too find much comfort in this wonderful hope, and may your precious memories help you to cope in the days ahead. Again, my deepest sympathy.

To Angela Chance: I'm really sorry to hear about your loss. May God bless you and give you peace. When your day seems dark and drear. You don't have to worry for God is near. If in your heart there is no song just keep the faith and just keep holding on. Hang your head down, fast and pray. Jesus will always make a way. There's a bright side somewhere.
