

Edith Robinson Burgess

August 15, 1926 - October 30, 2009

Our beloved Edith Robinson Goode Burgess departed this life October 30, 2009 at Virginia Commonwealth University Medical Center, Richmond, Virginia. Edith was born August 15, 1926 to the late Rev. John B. Robinson Sr. and Mildred O. Henson. She was the sixth of eleven children. She was educated in the Richmond Public School System. Edith's strong work ethic of forty-five years ended when she retired from Greyhound Bus Lines in 1988. Edith loved the Lord and accepted Christ at an early age. She was formally a thirty plus year member of Cedar Street Baptist Church where she served faithfully as a usher on the Royal Usher Board #1 and the R. M. Wilson Memorial Choir. Edith was a member of the blended voices of the Gloriettes Gospel Singers that were known throughout the Richmond and surrounding areas. Later, she joyfully joined St. Paul's Baptist Church, where she was a member in good standing and participated in the Mature Life Ministry. Edith will be remembered for her sweet humor, kindhearted and giving spirit. Her life touched the lives of many. Her home and heart was open to family and friends and often times to strangers. She had a positive attitude and a outgoing personality. Edith was a loving and caring sister, mother, aunt, great -aunt, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend. She enjoyed life and loved her family dearly. She was loved, adored and now will be missed by many. It was evident at the end of her journey that she was a student of the bible and a woman of faith. Celebrating the life of Edith Burgess are her two loving daughters, Rosa Elaine Fox and Barbara Jean Burgess; cherished grandson, Karif Akil Fox; adorable great-granddaughter, Kiya A. Fox; three loyal sisters, Virginia R. Taylor, Mildred R. Lewis, and Juanita Robinson (Leslie T. Reese Jr.); two devoted nieces, Barbara Ann Pitts and Jean Pace, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended relatives and friends.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when those who have fallen asleep in death will live again by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm5:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture will give you much comfort. Revelation chapter 21:4; "and he will wipe every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May God continue to strengthen you. Sincerely, C. Bain##imported-begin##Charlotte Bain##imported-end##

“ To The Burgess Family: I wish to express my condolence for the loss of your love one. During times like these, hearts are filled with grief and pain. However, please find comfort in Jehovah God's promise found in the Bible at Revelation chapter 21, verse 4. It reads: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May God comfort you during these difficult times.##imported-begin##P Land##imported-end##
