

Edith M. Sanderlin

June 1, 1947 - December 21, 2015

Edith "Eaddy" Marie Sanderlin was born on June 1, 1947 to the late Gertie Lee and Bill Pease in Blackstone, Virginia. She moved on to glory December 21, 2015. Edith was the only child born from this union.

Eaddy loved to pick beans back home in Blackstone and fondly spoke of her days there. She later moved to Baltimore, MD where she attended Baltimore City Public Schools.

Edith enjoyed partying, cooking, playing cards, eating crabs, and most of all she enjoyed her family. Eaddy became the mother of her neighborhood, all her children friends came to her house and she treated them no different than her own. She was well known and loved by all who knew her.

She leaves to cherish her memories three children Sherrie Sanderlin, Savaughn Young, Reginald Young and two who preceded her in death Sydney Young and Towanda Sanderlin, her lifetime companion Jerry Lee Hamlet who preceded her in death, one son in law Michael Pool, one aunt Vergie Maddox, 15 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To our beautiful Edie. Please know We never forgot you. You were always in our prayers. We are 86 and 89 years old now. We met you over 50 years ago when we lived on Biddle St and you asked us to be your baby's God Parents. Of course we said yes. Not able to get around much anymore but could not let this day go by without letting You know that We loved You and that We always held You in high regard. Your soul is at peace now. Take flight and hold tight to GOD' unchanging hand. Lovingly submitted, Charles and Catherine Goodman and Family, Shavonne's God Parents.
