“Granny, thanks for the love you shared with me, as a mother would a son. You made me feel welcome in your home and included me in your family's festivities. You were a cooking sister, that's for sure. The food you shared with your family and me was awesome! You invited me into your home to partake in holiday festivities and cookouts. All of these things I shall remember and think of you as a son would a mother and a friend would to a dear friend. Granny, I thank God for allowing you to exist to make a bunch of people feel good about themselves and an opportunity to have a better life. May God keep you in his bosom. Say hello to my grandma and father up there! Thank you! Hugs and Kisses!

“ To the Family,

Weeping may endure for a night but joy comes in the morning. When I heard about Aunt Edith as I know her was sad but one thing for sure our last visit together was full of laughter and smiles. I know you are hurting and have a deep void. She impacted so many people. Her favorite thing she said Baby Girl you are special person. Always know that where ever you are she is too smiling with joy that all her babies as she say are doing well. I'm praying for comfort for you all.

“Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God]; believe also in me. My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am. You know the way to the place where I am going.”

“Though now you are grieving, please remember that you are not alone. Psalm 46:1 says, "God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." Pray to Him for strength. He will really help you (Isaiah 41:10) because He cares for you (1 Peter 5:7). Like to know why we die and hope for our love ones. Please visit www.jv.org
