

Edith V. White-Walls

January 11, 1952 - February 9, 2011

On Wednesday, February 9, 2011, our beloved sister, EDITH VIOLA WHITE WALLS entered eternal rest at the age of fifty-nine. Edith was born on January 11, 1952 to the late Angie Virginia and Walter David White, Sr. She was preceded in death by her only daughter, Tara Dante' Walls.

Edith was baptized at a young age at Rocky Mount Baptist Church in McKenny, Virginia. As an adult, she joined Bethany Missionary Baptist Church in Petersburg, Virginia, under the pastor ship of Dr. Harry L. McCall. She was a dedicated member of the usher board and served on the woman's ministry.

Edith graduated from Dinwiddie County High School in June of 1970. She went on to further her education at Virginia State University. There, she earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Social Work on July 30, 1982. She later went on to receive her Masters of Education in May of 1992.

Edith began a prosperous career at Southside Virginia Training Center on August 1, 1974. She went on to serve there for twenty-six years. She began her career as a Developmental Aide and was later promoted to Supervisor and from there moved on to become a Social Worker. After leaving SVTC in November of 2000, Edith was employed as an educator in the Prince George's County Public School System located in Clinton, Maryland.

Those left to cherish her memory are: a sweet loving granddaughter, Nya Walls; six sisters, Dorothy Perry, Margaret Bolling (David), Mable Farrar (James) of Dinwiddie, Virginia, Alice P. White of Petersburg, Virginia, devoted sister, Alberta Sample and Gladys White of Baltimore, Maryland; Virginia, Deacon Howard White (Rona) of Baltimore, Maryland, George White (Phelisha) and John White of Dinwiddie, Virginia; fifteen nieces, fourteen nephews; two aunts, viola Prosis and Bertha Bossieau of Stony Creek, Virginia; several close friends, Wilimina Eley, Lona Hepburn, Mary (Cat) Hicks, Nancy Stewart, Alma Dudley, Carrie Flowers and Juanita Rogers of Virginia; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ A very very good friend. I will miss edith forever. By Edith saying I am her sister and could always depend on me in times of trouble, joy sharing and spending time on different adventures. I was Happy she considered me Nya's God mother because she knew I always enjoyed buying Nya cut dresses for Easter and Christmas. Like nya missing her mommy, so will I.

“ I am so very sorry for your loss. Remember the good times shared, and that one day you have the hope of being reunited with your loved one in the resurrection. John 5:28,29. Meanwhile, pour out your sorrows to our loving father who cares for you in his tender mercies. Keep Isaiah 66:13 close in your hearts which says: "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself, shall keep comforting you people.
