

Edmund Reeves

September 6, 1949 - July 7, 2013

His Dash EDMUND REEVES, affectionately called “ED,” was born in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Anna and Theodore Reeves on September 6, 1949. Ed suddenly departed this life, after a lengthy illness on July 7, 2013. Ed attended the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Edmondson High School and then attended the College of Notre Dame, where he received many honors and his Bachelor of Arts Degree. Ed served his country well, as a Sargent in the United States Army from 1969 through 1972. After which he continued his commitment to his country and served with the Army Reserves through 1975. Ed was employed over forty years with the National Security Agency (NSA). During his employment, Ed received numerous honors and awards. He was a respected member of “Blacks in Government”, and president of CWF, a government volunteer program, which Ed and Yvette often worked. Ed held numerous other jobs over the years as a part-time employee. We all know how he loved working at the Baltimore Arena for many years. Ed loves to cook, grill and travel; he and Yvette, his wife of twenty-four years went everywhere. He especially loved going to Atlantic City and Las Vegas, where they went every year for their anniversary. His favorite things to do, was his annual Christmas Party, hosting card games, and spending time with his Fraternity Brothers of the Beta Omega Epsilon Inc. Special thanks to Reginald Davis, Fred Foster, Bill Cohen, Poncho Bumbrey and Richard Arnold, just to name a few of the many who were there to help during Ed’s time of illness. Ed leaves to mourn: his wife, Yvette; two daughters, Latisha Reeves-Lee (Jody) and Natasha Bowser; six grandchildren, Jordan Lee, D'Angelo Barnwell, D'Anna, Dameon, D'Asia and Deon Bowser; brother, Bradley Reeves; two brothers-in-law, James and Keith Wallace; three sisters-in-law, Regina Pollitt, Vanessa Thomas and Deidre Williams; uncles-in-law, Harvey, Kenneth, Warren, Wayne and Michael Polston; aunt-in-law, Michele Rigsby; cousins, Joyce Martin and Dora McAllister; and a host of other friends and relatives.

“ I extend my deepest condolences to the family of Edmund Reeves. I am deeply saddened to hear of your lost. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort, who helps us cope with our grief. It can be so hard to face each day without our loved one; but, the love of family and fiends can help ease you pain and sorrow. The Bible promises at Revelation 21:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former will have passed away." We look forward to seeing Mr. Reeves again, right here on a paradise earth.(Psalms 37:9,10,11,29)
