

Edna Virginia Brown

July 17, 1941 - August 21, 2015

Edna Virginia Brown, daughter of the late Helen Louise Johnson was born July 17, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland. She is now in her serene home after a simple procedure, lead to a lengthy illness. She departed this life on August 21, 2015 at Cromwell Center Nursing and Rehabilitation facility in Parkville.

She received her education at Frederick Douglass Elementary School in Baltimore, Maryland. Edna was the proud mother of six children and with an eighth grade education, she worked very hard at a young age to provide for her family.

In her life she resided in Tilghman Island, Easton, MD, St. Michaels ,McDaniels, Williamsburg, Cambridge and Baltimore. While living in these towns, she worked in cucumber, green, tomatoe, cornfields and cannery factories, cleaned houses and even dietary in a nursing home.

She accepted Christ at an early age. In 1997, she joined New Life Evangelical Baptist Church where she worked faithfully as she served God.

Edna was a great person to know. Her spirit alone could never be defined. Mother Brown, as she was affectionately known, had so many friends and a host of church family that truly loves her so very much. She will be sorely missed.

Her sister, Floretta Hill, preceded her in death.

She leaves to mourn: daughter, Shirley Sanders; two sons, Poncho and James Brown; five grandchildren, nieces, nephews, family and friends and a host of church family that truly loves her so very much. She will always be remembered.
