

Edna Fairfax Harris

July 30, 1932 - March 31, 2002

Edna Harris, (69) of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, departed this life on March 31, 2002 at Anne Arundel Maryland Medical Center after a long period of illness. Born in Pittsburgh's Hill District on July 30, 1932, she was the daughter of the late Henry Morris and Elizabeth Washington and the wife of the late Robert Sherman Harris. Edna was educated in the city's public school system and graduated from Fifth Avenue High School, class of 1950. Edna also studied Early Childhood education at Pittsburgh Point Park College. Before retiring in 1990, Edna was a twenty-year employee of St. Margaret's Hospital. Edna was first introduced to the Lord at an early age and baptized at Ebenezer Baptist Church, in Pittsburgh. She enjoyed cooking, music, and spending time with her family and friends. She was well known in the community for opening her home to all and sharing her good will. Edna was civic minded and belonged to various community organizations. She leaves to mourn; four sons and two daughters, Mary Elizabeth of Detroit, Mich., Robert Sherman II, Warren Ross, Brian Keith and Kimberly Ann of Washington, D.C. and Alan Ross of Philadelphia, Pa.; two daughters-in-law, Carla and Elizabeth; seven grandchildren, George Edward, David Christopher, Robert Sherman III, Brian Keith Jr., Brandon Alan, Shenelle Monet, Tevin Keith and Sherman Alexander; two sisters and a brother survive her, Betty Jean, Ethel Joan and John Henry of Pittsburgh, Pa.; and a host of other relatives and friends. "Mom, although we grieve and have a heartfelt sense of loss, we are joyous that you have found peace. We love you dearly!"

“ Mom, it's been two weeks now since your passing so I've had time to reflect on what you meant to me and my family, and the love that so many had for you. You were our matriarch, our example of strength and fortitude. I love you, and treasure having you as my mom for 41 years. Please rest well my dear mother, as you are now in the Lord's care. I will miss you dearly. Your loving son,
Brian.##imported-begin##Brian Harris##imported-end##
