

Edna Mae Lee

October 7, 1939 - January 19, 2023

The Life of Edna Mae Harris Lee

If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed... nothing shall be impossible unto you. Matthew 17:20

Edna Mae “Harris” Lee, daughter of the late Mercer and Blanche Harris was born October 7th, 1939, in Richmond, VA. She attended Maggie L. Walker High School and served as a longtime member of Trinity Baptist Church.

Edna transitioned from earthly labor to heavenly reward on January 19th, 2023. She was preceded in death by her sister, Alma Louise McCall, brothers, Junius “Junie” Harris, Robert Harris, Mercer Harris Jr. “Red”, Daniel Harris, and Ralph Harris Sr.

Edna Lee, also affectionately known as “Granny” was a loving, hardworking Christian woman, who loved God, traveling and spending time with her family. She always prioritized her family’s needs, and enjoyed helping to raise and watch her grandchildren and great grandchildren grow. Granny, a wife, a mother, a grandmother, and great-grandmother too, this is the legacy we have from you. She will certainly be missed by all, but never forgotten.

Edna leaves to cherish her memories; husband, Alfred Lee, Daughter,

Charlene Jackson (James), two grandsons, Jonathan Jackson (Cheniqua), and Justin Jackson (Cenata), three great grand-daughters, Crystal Jackson, McKenzie Jackson, and Morgan Jackson, one great grandson, Justin Jackson Jr., two nieces, Jackie Harris and Melissa Harris, and two nephews, Ralph Harris Jr., and Ronald Mayo "Mookie", a close friend of the family, Carolyn White, and a host of other relatives and cherished close friends.

God knew the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb;
So He closed her weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace Be Thine".
