“ To the family and friends of Ms. Thornwell. Please accept my sincere sympathy on the passing of your loved one. May Jehovah God comfort you and provide peace to you in this time of mourning. Please find solace in knowing that Jehovah has promised that those lost in death will live again (Isaiah 26:19) and he gives us hope of seeing those ones in the resurrection (Acts 24:15)##imported-begin##Marilynn Wright##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing a mom. May you find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) What a real celebration of life that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

“ To Mike and Shirley...Our condolences are extended to you and the rest of the family. Although our presence physically wasn't there with you all, our spirit is. We understand and sympathize with the loss of your mother. Edna was a very nice and loving person who will be missed dearly. Remember times of joy and happiness and that will carry you through this time of grief. No more pain and suffering; no more sickness or grip. No more thoughts of unhappiness, no more crying at night. Death is a part of life and knowing Christ, I'm sure you will reunite with Edna again in a place where praise and worship will never cease, but will always carry on. Love you much...hugs and kisses!
