The Lord sent a beautiful blessing to the late Samuel McGlotten and Clare McGlotten on October 16, 1918; EDNA M. MCGLOTTEN was born. The Lord called upon her to his eternal resting place on April 12, 2006 at Good Samaritan Hospital. She was an adorable, affectionate, loving, respectable and trustworthy mother and grandmother. “ Hi ! Smith's ! I would like to send my fellow feeling to you all.Losing a dear loved one like Ms. Edna breaks the family circle. I see the Ms. Edna had many grand & great-grand children & many friends where ever she went. Doing things for people reminds us of Jesus Christ helping so many people. When his dear friend died Lazarus died, Jesus felt pain to the point of tears as John 11:35. We can be sure that very soon no one will ever die again and we all will be over joyed. I am looking forward to that time and know you all are too. I hope these few thoughts will be uplifting . My condolences, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences to your family on the loss of your loved one. Unfortunately, death is something we have no control over, but the pain of losing a loved one cuts us so deeply. Jehovah God knows the anguish we feel when death hits our family, and he has purposed to permanently end all sickness and death on the earth in the very near future according to bible prophecy. Very soon, as promised in the bible at Rev 21:3,4 God will wipe out every tear from our eyes and death will be no more." We can put faith in his promises, because he is the God of truth. May those thoughts bring you comfort at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##
