“ To the family, I offer my condolences. As you find comfort from your many memories of your loved one, may you also draw comfort from "...the God of all comfort...who comforts us in all our tribulation." 2 Corinthians 1:3,4.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I send the family my condolences. It is very tragic that our lifespan is so short. The Bible, however, gives a wonderful hope about a resurrection and life in a peaceful new world. (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:3,4). May family and friends take comfort in these scriptures.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
