EDNA WOODFOLK PULLEY was born February 23, 1926 in Crewe, Virginia to the late David and Mable Woodfolk. Edna departed this life on Tuesday, November 8, while residing in her house that she lived in for over fifty years.

The family later moved to Baltimore, Maryland where she was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System.

In 1942, Edna married James Pulley and their marriage lasted for over seventy years. Three beautiful daughters were born from this union.

Edna was one of the very first Crossing Guards for Baltimore City. She loved her job! She would often tell stories about the many students she would help safely cross "her corner" at the intersection of West Cold Spring Lane and Pall Mall Road.

She was well loved by her neighbors and special friends, she loved them dearly too..

Some of her favorite activities included traveling to different cities, going out to various restaurants and watching soap operas and sporting events.

Edna was a member of New Shiloh Baptist Church for over sixty years. She loved singing and was a member of Senior Choir (#2) and Fellowship Choir. Edna was a devoted member under the leaderships of Rev. J. Timothy Boddie, Dr. Harold Carter Sr. and Dr. Harold Carter, Jr.,

She was a willing supporter of the church ministry with her volunteer work in various activities and groups. As she grew older, she claimed her position early in the morning service where she loved to listen to the choir and praise the Lord.

She was preceded in death by: her brother, Fred Woodfolk; son-in-law, Fulton Hines; daughter, Jean Gray and husband James Pulley.

Edna leaves to cherish her memory: daughters, Carolyn Hines and Roxanne Stephens; granddaughters, Sharon Grey, Dawn Early and Tiffany Stephens; a host of great-grandchildren; sister, Mattie Redding; nieces including beloved niece, Diane Woodfolk; great-nieces, adopted sons, Ralph Ray and James Gwaltney; adopted godchild, Jeanette Johnson; and a host of other cousins, relatives and friends.
