

Edna Robertson

October 19, 1915 - January 28, 2011

Quietly on the morning of January 28, 2011 EDNA ELIZABETH ROBERTSON was called to eternal rest after a lengthy illness.

Edna was the youngest of nine children born in Purlie, Caswell County, North Carolina on October 19, 1915. She was the daughter of the late William and Belle Haymes Pinchback.

Edna was raised in Danville, Virginia, where she received her education in the Danville Public School System. On April 19, 1933, she met and married the late Carson Robertson, Sr. of Danville, Virginia and this union two children were born.

She worked in the tobacco factories in Danville, Virginia, but relocated to Baltimore, Maryland in 1946 where she was employed as a domestic worker for many years.

At an early age she professed her faith in Christ and joined the fellowship of Faith Baptist Church where she served faithfully as a member of the Women's League until her health failed.

"Sister" as she was known by her family loved to talk and never hesitated to express her opinion. She was quick witted and when asked, offered sage and wise advice. All who knew Sister can certainly appreciate her humor. Sister was an avid gardener and loved to work crossword puzzles, but more than anything else she enjoyed fellowship with her family. She genuinely loved people and touched many lives. She will be greatly missed by those who knew and loved her.

She leaves to hold in loving memory: her faithful daughter and caregiver, Irene Middleton; a loving son, Carson Roberson, Jr.; a son-in-law, Frederick Middleton; two grandchildren, five great-grandchildren; a host of nieces, cousins, other relatives and devoted friends.
