

Edna V. Taylor

November 20, 1939 - January 28, 2002

Edna V. Taylor was born on November 20, 1939 in Richmond, Virginia. She was the daughter of the late Bernard C. and Susie V. Sturtevant. She departed this life quietly on January 28, 2002 at Good Samaritan Hospital after a lengthy illness. Edna moved with her family to Baltimore, Maryland where she received her education. She accepted Christ in her life at a very early age and was baptized at Union Baptist Church. She met her late husband, Vernon E. Taylor Sr., and they married in 1955. They were blessed with four children. Edna enjoyed sewing, decorating, reading, working as a private duty nurse, and above all she loved raising her children and grandchildren. She leaves to cherish her memory: her loving sons, Vernon Jr. and Van J.; her loving daughters, Pamela C. Hughes; grandchildren, Tavon Bomar, Christine A. McCardell, Richard McCardell and Brian J. Taylor; great-grandchildren, Amara, Elijah and Christian; brothers, Bernard C. Sturtevant, Jr., Alvin L. Sturtevant and Robert F. Sturtevant; sisters, Kathleen Parker and Carolyn J. Williams; sisters-in-law, Laureen Sturtevant and Joan Sturtevant; brothers-in-law, Frederick Williams, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins and a host of friends. Yesterday is gone and tomorrow will soon come Just like the rain begins to pour, But afterwards you'll see the sun And your healing begins when you endure all of the pain. It's like the tears that you cry Don't ever seem like they will dry, And the hurt that you feel consumes the spark in your eye. And your mind is so clouded by the fog of your storm And there's no place in your heart you can find to stay warm. But remember the pain will fade away and the joy will arrive. What once seemed to be dead will soon come alive. The smile upon your face will shine as bright as the sun, because the victory is yours and the battle is won. Sherrie Sturtevant Your family and friends love you, but God loves you best.

Tribute Wall

“ Edna V. Taylor

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Edna V. Taylor

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ May God bless you and be with you in your time of sorrow. May He give you strength and hope to meet each new tomorrow. He has said I will never leave thee nor forsake thee...

Hebrew13:##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM