

Edward Alston

April 17, 1937 - August 26, 2014

EDWARD ALSTON SR., son of the late Anthony and Pearline Alston, was born on April 17, 1937 in Warrenton, North Carolina. He departed this life on August 26, 2014 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education at Warrenton High School in North Carolina. As a late teen, he sang with The Junior Quartet of Warrenton, North Carolina; a gospel group well known in the area whose music was played every Sunday on the radio. As a young man he came to Baltimore, Maryland and was an employee of the Bethlehem Steel Co. for numerous years.

Edward was baptized at an early age and loved, listened to and sang gospel songs.

He met and married Dian Jobes, and out of this union five children were born, Pearline, Edward Jr., Lizzy, Leroy, and Norman. He also has a wonderful stepdaughter, Helena Jobes and a son, Daryl Alston (Lizzy, Norman, and Daryl preceded him in death).

For numerous years, Ed lived at Augsburg Lutheran Home where he made continuous friends. There, he met a "sweetie" who would take care of him, and no one else could say or do any harm to him because that's the way she insists on having it (smile). Ed, as he was affectionately known, made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Dian Alston; two daughters, Helena Jobes and Pearline Alston Meeks; two sons, Edward Alston, Jr. and Leroy Alston; one sister, Ethel Davis; eight grandchildren, thirteen great- grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
