“ To The Family of Mr. Edward Ashby, I would like to convey my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. We all look forward to the time when mourning will be a thing of the past because 1Cor15:26 talks about a time when "the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing". Continue to draw close to the "God of all comfort" and he will give you the strength to get through (2Cor1:3-4). Warm regards, C. Murphy

“ I am very sorry for your loss. I hope this scripture will give you much comfort. Revelation chapter 21: 4, "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Sincerely, C. Bain

“ I am so very sorry that you lost your dear loved one in death. No family should have to feel such pain, and believe me, God did not desire this for anyone. When he first created man, he had a beautiful purpose for them to live forever in a paradise earth; to subdue it, and to have children and fill the earth with their offspring. Gen chapter 1 and 2. Has his purpose changed? No, because he promises at 2nd Peter 3:13 a new earth in which righteousness is to dwell. ONE day, according to John 5:28,29, all those who are sleeping in death will come out of those memorial tombs to everlasting life in peaceful conditions. May you be comforted by this promise, and i pray that you read and study the bible when you are feeling up to it, so that you can learn the wonderful things that God has in store for those who love him. If you desire a bible study, please contact me at my e-mail address, and i will be happy to assist you. May you be comforted by your precious memories.##imported-begin##R JOhnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my condolences to the Ashby family. When death separates us from our loved ones deep sorrow can result, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 encourages us with the resurrection hope stating: "Many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May your cherished memories and God's Word of Truth comfort your heart.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
