“ I worked with "Mac" at Bellwood Supply Ctr. for many yrs. Very sorry to hear of his passing. He was a fine man, always easy to work with; a quick smile, very quiet. My sincerest sympathy to his family.##imported-begin##Madalyn Drew##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of Mr. McDonald. Job 14:7,14 states: "For there exists hope for even a tree. If it gets cut down, it will even sprout again, And its own twig will not cease to be."You will call, and I myself shall answer you, For the work of your hands you will have a yearning." May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful resurrection hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. McDonald, I offer my sincere sympathy. The sorrow you are experiencing now will soon be alleviated. God promises at John 5:28,29 that all those in the memorial tombs will soon hear his voice and come out. He also lets us know, at John 3:16 and John 17:3 what we must do to witness this grand event. May this wonderful promise give you comfort now and in the days to come.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
