

Edward M. Brice

August 6, 1956 - April 25, 2016

Edward Mitchell Brice, son of the late Odell and Mozell Brice was born on August 6, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System.

In his early life, he worked at the Bethlehem Steel Shipyard as a shipman for many years. At the time of his passing, he was a loyal employee at Geresbeck's Box N Save Food Market in Dundalk.

Edward was known to all who loved him as "Butch". He enjoyed his time as a grandfather, being called "Pop-Pop".

Butch was known for his love of music as he worked as a DJ in his early life. He will be greatly remembered for his love of card playing, cooking and watching movies. He was not a big phone person, but enjoyed visits from his family.

Butch had a loving and forgiving spirit and loved all his family dearly.

He realized Christ was the answer to all his success and blessings. He was a faithful member at Shiloh Baptist Church of Edgemere.

Butch married Juanita Richardson in 2005, where their love continued "until death do us part”.

He will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Juanita Brice; six daughters, Octavia, Monique and Kokia Brice, Patricia Ames, Karen Casey and Laura Richardson; two sons, Kowan Brice and Curtis Richardson; twenty grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren; two sisters, Shirley Crews and Virginia Edwards; two sons-in-law, Eugene Casey and William Ames; brother-in-law, Dennis Edwards; and a host of great-nieces, -nephews other relatives and friend

“ This was my dad, and this is a good picture of him. Known to all who loved him as Butch. My dad was my father and best friend and we would talk about it all. Even though he and my mom parted ways early in my life, he was always a full time dad. I still do not know how he did but he did. Even when he got all upset with me and thought I was not listening. Daddy I heard you and I was listening even when I rolled my eyes. Everyone knew my dad had a love for his seafood, his fried chicken and his movies. Most of all anyone who knew him also knew his love for his grand-children, Nevaeh, Joshua, Aniyah, Tremaine Emani, and Natalia. He would lite up like a Christmas tree every time they would say Pop-Pop. All the way up to the day before he pass on he spent as much time with them as he could. Giving out treats and playing movies for them. My dad was awesome and he is truly missed. I love you daddy, I miss you with all I am. This new journey without you is a hard one and I am still trying to wrap my mind around you being gone. -Kia

“ I am sending my condolences to the family. When someone we love dies its very painful. But the Bible talks about God doing away with pain at Rev 21:4. May the God of comfort provide solace to your family at this time.
