

Edward L. Brown

December 7, 1967 - November 15, 2018

Edward L. Brown Jr. was the son of Evelyn Brown-Player and the late Edward L. Brown Sr. who preceded him in death. Also one sister, Carolyn Anderson, preceded him in death. He was born on December 7, 1967 in Baltimore, Maryland and departed this life on November 15, 2018

Edward received his GED and went on to college for a year and a half. During his journey in life he made numerous friends. He will be truly missed by everyone.

He had a close friend, like a brother, Ronald Warren; and a cousin, Eddie Williams, known as Fast Eddie.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Evelyn who he called Mommy Dukes; son, Marquis McWayne; grandson, Macari McWayne; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousin, and friends.

“ On November 15,2018 God decided to bring his child home to be with him. I met Edward (Boo) Brown on November 6,1994 ,24 years ago. Throughout these 24 years not only did Boo ,I share a special Love for each other. We also owned a Beauty Salon named "Jenny s Unique Attitudes from 5/ 1/1995 til late 1997. My dreams of owning a Salon was my dream that Boo made come to life . He would always unselfishly put my feelings,needs first . You even gave me my muslim name Nadia, you my Nadiar. I remember how we always ended our letters with I Love You Forever and a Day , and that I shall do. I thank you for choosing me to open your heart to, I thank God for allowing me to experience True Love from a God fearing Man. You will Never be Forgotten.
