

Edward D. Johnson

October 13, 1923 - June 26, 2005

EDWARD DOUGLAS JOHNSON, son of the late Mary Johnson Smith and Douglas Monroe, was born on October 13, 1923 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life after a lengthy illness and went on to be with the Lord on Sunday, June 26, 2005. "Ed," as he was fondly known, was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He was called to active duty in the United States Armed Forces on March 5, 1943 and served in the European/African Theater (World War II). He received an honorable discharge on January 7, 1946. Ed was employed by Lock Insulation and later went on to work for Kaiser Aluminum until he retired in 1978. In 1944 Ed was united in marriage to the late Betty Hemsley, and from this union a son was born, Bernard Johnson. On August 20, 1968 Ed was united in marriage to the former Dorothy Meekins. Ed knew the Lord and enjoyed him in his own way. One of his favorite hymns was "Just as I am, without one plea." Ed was fondly known to his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren as Pop Pop, Poppy, and Pop. Ed enjoyed the Mount Winans, Westport Community. You could always find him walking and greeting his neighbors with a hello and a great story. Ed leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted wife, Dorothy; three sons, Bernard, Warren and Ray; three daughters, Barbara, Acquanetta and Constance; three daughters-in-law, Jacqueline, Martha, and Latarsha; grandchildren, Kimberly, Micah, Danein, Deon, Kelly, Ryan, Antonio, Telethia, Tinesha, Paris, and Tyrik; great-grandchildren, Alan, Devin, Tia and Darrell; six sisters, Catherine, Eleanor, Mary, Leanna, Dorothy, and Betty; four brothers, Ernest, Robert, Calvin and William; three sisters-in-law, Gloria, Carolyn, and Beatrice; four brothers-in-law, Herbeth, Ronald, William, and Robert; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Daniel 12:2 says-
"And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." May you find much comfort in this divinely inspired promise.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation.
(2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-

“ My husband and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your loss. The Holy Bible helps us to appreciate how Jesus feels for us when a loved one dies. John 11:35 tells us that Jesus gave way to tears upon learning of the death of his friend Lazarus. This gives us assurance that Jesus cares for us during this time of our grief.
Jesus also comforts us with the hope of a resurrection (see John 5:28,29). It is my hope that these words bring you comfort in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Mildred##imported-end##
