

Edward W. Grant Sr.

December 2, 1951 - December 11, 2012

On December 2, 1951, God created EDWARD WENDELL GRANT, SR. and entrusted his life to Edwin Grant and the late Delores Turner-Grant. Eddie, as he was affectionately called, went home to meet his Lord on December 11, 2012 after a brief illness.

Eddie was raised on Mulberry Street in West Baltimore with his two sisters Linda and Gi-Gi and his two brothers Gerald and Milton, who lovingly called him Wendell. Eddie graduated from Baltimore City College and went on to earn his Bachelor's degree in sociology from Morgan State College. Eddie was employed with the State of Maryland Department of Social Services as a Supervisor and retired after thirty years of faithful service. Eddie enjoyed his work and enjoyed working as a team player along with his co-workers; but the job that gave him the most fulfillment was spending time with his wife, Sandi, his four children, Kevin, Antoine, Edward Jr. and Keith and his grandchildren. Eddie was very proud of his children and loved them very much.

Eddie loved to eat and fancied himself a cook, his specialty being fried potatoes and onions. On many occasions you would hear him in the wee hours of the morning raiding the refrigerator only to wake up and find that he had eaten the last two pieces of fried chicken you had saved for yourself.

Eddie received Christ at an early age and continued his spiritual journey throughout his life. Eddie made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. Eddie was always a true friend and a devoted husband and father.

On October 7, 1979, Eddie entered into a lasting bond with the love of his life, the former Sondera L. Bobbitt. Out of this union came four sons, Kevin, Antoine, Edward Jr. and Keith.

Eddie leaves to honor and cherish his memory: his wife, Sondera L. Grant; four sons, Kevin, Antoine, Edward Jr. and Keith; his father, Edwin Grant; five brothers, Gerald, Milton, Darryl, Miles and Keenan; three sisters, Linda Dixon, Nadine Jackson and Bernadine Grant; eleven grandchildren, Marquise, Shandeira, Taylor, Karon, Tyler, Brianna, Tylon, Kenard, Kameren, Kylie and Leora; his grandmother, Annie Jackson; aunt, Emma Holley; daughter-in-law, Elaine; seven brothers-in-law, Nathaniel, Jerry, Larry, Clarence, Jerome, Terry and Henry; seven sisters-in-law, Lisa, Barbara, Carolyn, Brenda, Charlotte, Rose and Peggy; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Grant Family, Please know that Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal. It is given a time for man to be born and a time for him to die. However, the wonderful Word of God promises that whosoever lives and believes in His Son, Jesus, shall never die. May the comforting promises of Scripture excite you to grow in His Grace.

“ I send my deepest condolences to the family at this most difficult time. May you be comforted by the promise of the resurrection, and the end to sickness and death forever. God makes this wonderful promise to us at Isaiah 25:8. So soon death will be no more, and we won't have to bury our loved ones ever again. At John 5:28 God promises that all those in the memorial tombs will hear the voice of his Son Jesus, and come out of those tombs. May you find comfort in these wonderful promises from Jehovah God.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
