

Edward Louis Harris

June 21, 1930 - October 3, 2015

A Time to be Born. Edward L. Harris, a loving husband, father, brother, and God's special servant was born in Oakhill, NC on June 21, 1930 to Alfonso and Mollie Harris. He was one of five brothers and six sisters.

A Time to Plant. Edward was a member of Our Savior Lutheran Church. He accepted Christ at an early age and attended faithfully every Sunday.

A Time to Labor. Edward worked for Baltimore City Public Works for many years on snow emergency routes. He moved on to become self-employed as an interior and exterior designer, decorating people's homes and businesses. He loved decorating his own home. He still wanted to decorate when he could not.

A Time to Care. Edward loved fishing with his friends and bringing home the fish so of course his wife could clean and cook them. There was a time in Edward's life that he enjoyed traveling to New York, Canada and New Orleans with his wife and friends. The family had a lot of fun at his outdoor family cookouts where he would pretend to be a chef. "Eddie", which he was fondly called by his close friends, loved all kinds of music and he spent his spare time plucking on his guitar trying to create his own music. The old dance, "Apple Jack", was his favorite dance. He loved making people laugh, and also enjoyed telling jokes to anyone who would listen. Some were really great and others were so corny you had to laugh for his sake.

A Time of Peace. On Saturday, October 3, 2015, Edward passed into God's eternal peace. He leaves to cherish and to celebrate his memories, his loving and faithful wife, Rita M. Harris; three sons, Bobby L. and Jerry L. Harris, and Rev. Dr. Freddie L. Harper; three daughters, Maria Harris, who preceded him in death, Gwendolyn Harris and Diane Harris; eight sisters and brothers who preceded him in death, one brother, Nathan Harris of New Hampshire and one sister; Rev. Dr. Forie M. Carter of Baltimore; three sisters-in-law, Jennie Moore, Gloria Bracey (Melvin) and Louise Jenkins; two daughters-in-law, Iris and Jacqueline Harris; one son-in-law, Windyl A. Johnson, Sr.; four grandchildren, Crystal P. Harris, Dr. LaKeita Carter (Jarrett), Michelle Harris and Jerrelle Harris; four great-grandchildren, Jarrett, Landen, Trinity and Triston; and a host of relatives and friends.
