

Edward Roland Hough

August 14, 1962 - March 5, 2014

EDWARD ROLAND HOUGH, son of the late Joyce and Leslie Hough Jr., was born on August 14, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on March 5, 2014 after a brief illness.

Edward, known as Roland received his education in Baltimore City Public School System. Throughout his life Roland practiced several trades, including mechanical, janitorial, painting, and many more. Roland was fantastic storyteller, but if you really knew him, you would know most of his stories were rarely true. Roland will truly be missed by all who knew him.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two daughters; Renae Dargan and Tarelle Hough; six grandchildren; Brittany, Tony, Derrick, Jamal, Logan, and Camren; three sisters (Theresa preceded him in death), Pamela, Tammy, and Elizabeth; one brother-in-law, Reginald; six nieces; four nephews, eight great-nieces and nephews; his devoted friend, Helen Coleman; a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the passing of your love one. I hope you will find comfort from the Scriptures, knowing what Jesus says about the hope for those asleep in death. Just imagine seeing your love ones again on the paradise earth. You can read about this hope at Isaiah 25:8.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he ressurected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.
