

Edward Jackson

June 14, 1971 - May 9, 2009

Edward Jackson III (Eddie), son of Juanita A. Murray and the late Edward Jackson, Jr., was born on June 14, 1971 in Baltimore. He departed this earthly life on Saturday, May 9, 2009. He was educated and graduated from the Baltimore City Public School System. After graduating from high school, he entered the United States Army. Eddie accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior and was baptized at New Hope Baptist Church in Baltimore, Maryland. At an early age Eddie showed signs of athleticism. He was a gifted football player, starting with Pop Warner, high school and semi-professional. He played for several teams including Arbutus, The Baltimore Rams and The Baltimore Warriors. All who knew Eddie knew about his love and even obsession with football and most importantly, The World Champion Pittsburgh Steelers. Always well conditioned, Eddie was a dedicated weightlifter. He exercised daily. His appearance and keeping up with the trends was very important. Eddie loved to dance and show off his "moves". He had an easy-going nature, a ready smile and was absolutely fun to be around. In his later years, he trained and was certified in HVAC and maintenance. Eddie also owned and operated his own cleaning business for five years. At the time of his passing, he was employed as a maintenance mechanic. He leaves to mourn: three children, Edward IV, Ania and Ebony; mother, Juanita A. Murray; sisters, Tracy V. Jackson and Peggy Harris; grandmother, Jessie F. Belfield; nephew, Justin Hill; aunt, Patricia E. Carter; uncle, Michael Belfield; cousin, Robert L. Carter; fiancée, Christina Pierce; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy to Mr. Jackson's family and friends. The untimely loss of one so dearly loved can be very painful and difficult to bear, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured of God's promise to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to First Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Then, Daniel 12:2 states: "many of those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie. -Titus 1:2. I hope you continue to find comfort in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
